

Washington, D.C. 20505

12 November 1982

The Honorable Robert McClory
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. McClory:

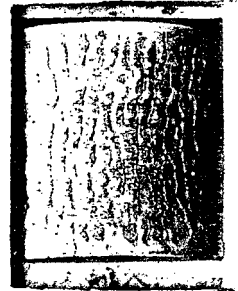

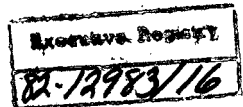

We are somewhat saddened by your decision to retire but want to thank you for the tremendous cooperation and guidance that you have rendered the intelligence organizations of the United States. I know we have benefited substantially by your counsel and support.

You have our best wishes for good luck in retirement.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

John N. McMahon

STAT

STAT

